[WARNING: External Email]

Either 1) USC provides us with a written certification that both we and the Court finds acceptable for admission and the wording meets with our approval before it is signed, or 2) I will subpoena a witness to give us the testimony. Please let me know your choice by 5 pm PT today. If we have to serve the GC's office with a subpoena tomorrow, we will insist on live testimony.

We informed you the information for 3 was publicly available and you accepted that. USC has no documents for 4 and 5. We are unaware of any authority that requires USC to provide a certification in response to 7, let alone the certification you have provided, which we believe is misleading. Finally, because USC has no responsive documents, we do not believe USC needs to provide anything in response to Request 6.

[WARNING: External Email]

The return date of the subpoena was September 8, 2021. I believe your motion to quash only addressed items 1 and 2 of the subpoena. The other materials are overdue. Will you produce them forthwith or do we need to seek relief from the Court. Please respond by noon ET on Tuesday.
